DETAILED ACTION

An examination of this application reveals that Applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A – Claims 9 to 10, 72 to 81, 85 to 94, directed to utilizing natural language in speech recognition.

Species B – Claims 15 to 29, directed to indicator displays for speech recognition.

Species C – Claims 31 and 36, directed to server processing in speech recognition.

Species D – Claim 32, directed to dual tone multi-frequency identification in speech recognition.

Species E – Claims 35, directed to displaying preset schedule information.

Species F – Claims 40 to 44, directed to determining short-term averaged energy or peak-to-mean likelihood ratio for speech recognition.

Art Unit: 2654

Species G – Claims 48 to 53, directed to speech recognition for processing words by editing with respect to time intervals and positions of words.

Species H – Claims 54 and 57, directed to adjusting a sound level in speech recognition.

Species I – Claims 55 to 56, directed to voice rating means in speech recognition.

Species J – Claims 58 to 64, directing to scoring in speech recognition.

Species K – Claims 65 to 71, 101, and 103, directed to grammars in speech recognition.

Species L – Claim 102, directed to telephony hardware for speech recognition.

Species M – Claims 105 to 108, directed to locations in a vehicle for placing a speech recognition system.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1 to 8, 11 to 14, 30, 33 to 34, 37 to 39, 45 to 47, 82 to 84, 95 to 100, and 104 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should Applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Martin Lerner whose telephone number is (571) 272-7608. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM Monday to Thursday.
